

AT 7smart dissolution testing system (Sotax, Switzerland)

Dissolution is a test used by the pharma industry to characterize the dissolution properties of a drug, the active drug release and the dissolution from a dosage formulation in different media. AT 7smart dissolution tester from Sotax is fully automated system which also performs the complete dissolution process, from preparation to cleaning. The instrument is compliant with all pharmacopeia methods and is equipped with many USP paddles.

Research Assistant: Dr. Sara Bersani